Supreme Court of the United States.

OCTOBER TERM, 1904.
NO. 4 ORIGINAL.

STATE OF MISSOURI, Complainant,

vs.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, AND THE SANITARY DISTRICT OF CHICAGO, Defendants.

MOTION.

Come now the State of Missouri, complainant, by Herbert S. Hadley, Attorney-General, and the State of Illinois, and the Sanitary District of Chicago, defendants, by W. H. Stead, Attorney-General, and H. J. Hamlin, their attorneys, and move and request the Court to make an order setting the hearing and argument in this case for some day certain at the October term, 1905, of this Court, for the following reasons, to wit:

First—The printed record in this case consists of eight volumes of printed testimony of one thousand and two pages each, and the preparation of the Abstract of Record and the Brief will require several months of labor upon the part of the attorneys for complainant and defendants in order to prepare the questions involved in said case for presentation to this Court.

Second—The setting of this case for hearing upon a day certain would be greatly to the convenience of counsel in the preparation of their abstract of record and briefs, and would also be of assistance in the speedy determination of the case by this Court.

HERBERT S. HADLEY,
Attorney-General, for Complainant.

W. H. STEAD, Attorney-General,
H. J. HAMLIN,
For Defendants.
